

Juliet M. Getty, Ph.D.

www.GettyEquineNutrition.com

Nutrition services for all life stages

Integrative support for disorders and diseases

AVOID LONG TERM USE OF ULCER MEDICATIONS

They either turn off the acid-making machinery in the stomach or they neutralize acid. Stomach acid is a necessary component of your horse's immune system, destroying harmful pathogens that your horse picks up from the ground. Acid is also necessary to start protein digestion.

Reprinted with permission from Dr. Getty's website – www.GettyEquineNutrition.com