

Maine Farriers Association 2019 Spring Clinic with Allie Hayes

“Hands-On Examination of the Equine Lower Limb” with Allie Hayes.

This clinic will explore lower limb anatomy, evaluate trimming techniques, and review various common foot pathologies through the use of prepared hoof models and several cadaver dissections.

Date: April 6, 2019

Location: Windward Farm -- 556 Middlesex Rd,
Topsham, ME 04086

Time: 7:30am – 4:00pm

- Coffee Social – 7:30 – 8:00 am
- Association Meeting – 8:00 – 9:00 am
- Clinic – 9:00 – 4:00pm
- Includes lunch

Cost: $100 for 2019 MFA Members
$150 for MFA Non-Members

Payment: Register and Pay ONLINE at www.mainebarriers.vpweb.com or make checks payable to Maine Farriers and mail to:

Maine Farriers Association
Secretary Darryl Stewart
546 Hallowell Litchfield Rd, West Gardiner ME 04345

FMI email: Liselle Batt, MFA president at mainebarrierspresident@gmail.com

ABOUT THE CLINICIAN

Ms. Hayes -- farrier, owner of HorseScience and Horseshoeing Hall of Fame Recipient -- is one of the farrier industry's foremost experts on equine lower limb anatomy and hoof sample preservation. For more information, please follow the links below:

- Farrier Focus Podcast w/ Allie Hayes: <http://farrierfocuspodcast.libsyn.com/interview-with-allie-hayes-of-horse-science>
- Horse Science – Hoof Science Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/Horse-Science-Hoof-Science-1532952180346854/>
- Hoof Science Website: <http://www.horsescience.com/>