Presents This Years

Farriers' Seminar & Workshop on Saturday October 4th, 2025

Static Vs. Dynamic Balance & Shoeing for Lameness and Injury

With Doug Russo, CJF, AWCF

Pending
Approval

PLEASE WELCOME

Doug Russo is the Resident Farrier of the Iowa State University College of Veterinary Medicine. His role there includes teaching a two-week clinical rotation for 4th-year vet students, co-teaching a 1/2 semester lameness course, and working in support of ISU's surgery team. Doug is a Past President of the Michigan Horseshoers Association and has been exceptionally active and supportive of the Iowa Professional Farriers' Association. He is an active participant in several American Farriers Association (AFA) committees and is currently Chairman of the AFA Equine Research Committee. He was a past AFA board member, approved certification instructor, and AFA examiner. He is also president of the newly launched American Farriers Association Foundation.

In 2016, Doug became the first in Iowa and the eighteenth in the United States to achieve recognition as an Associate of the Worshipful Company of Farriers (AWCF) in the UK.

Doug nailed his first set of shoes on a horse as a ranch hand at the age of 18... And hated every minute of it. It wasn't until he was 27 years old that he sought an apprenticeship with Richard Becker CJF. Dick was an AFA examiner at the time and quickly coached Doug through his CF and CJF.
