Wendy Murdoch is an internationally recognized riding instructor, clinician, and author with over 40 years of experience helping horses and riders find ease, balance, and better communication. She developed the SURE FOOT Equine Stability Program®—a revolutionary approach that uses specialized balance Pads to activate a horse's awareness, improve posture, and create lasting positive change from the ground up. Through her teaching, online programs, and global practitioner network, Wendy continues to empower owners and professionals to help horses feel better, move better, and perform at their best—one hoof at a time.
